Providing Congregate and Home Delivered Meals in Jasper County

Jasper County Veteran's Affairs

The Jasper County office of Veteran's Affairs ensures the availability of financial and related program services to qualified veterans or their families who receive benefits under the provisions of Chapter 35B of the Iowa Code. The office provides assistance to veterans, dependents, and spouses in completing applications for financial assistance of food, utilities, rent, medical, transportation and related needs. The office also provides counsel and assistance in matters pertaining to filing claims, forms, Eligibility Verification Report (EVR's) and related documents and obtains signatures for pensions/compensation and aid; inpatient/outpatient hospitalization care, rehabilitation, income and net worth, and budget preparation; makes calls to veterans with disabilities; acts as payee/fiduciary for clients unable to manage financial affairs; coordinates transportation needs of veterans to treatment and care facilities. For more information, call 641-792-7993.
